Hosting Organization Summary: "Eo, Eo" Association is an independent, non-profit organization that has been working in the town of Alhaurín de la Torre since 2003. This organization seeks to respond to the needs of the local youth by encouraging spaces where participation is important so that they feel integrated and represented in their environment.

Last year was awarded in the form of associationism at the provincial level in the Málaga Young 2016 awards, in recognition of the work that has been carried out since the association to improve the social net within the region of the Axarquía and Serranía through proposals of Alternative Night Leisure, focused on young people from different locations.

We have been carrying out activities aimed mainly at young people for 14 years, offering them the necessary tools and guidance so that they can organize, through the creation of their own associations, volunteer proposals, fields of work, alternative leisure proposals etc. Thus, empowering their empowerment within society and supporting themselves as those who generate social transformation. It also has experience in international projects in Ecuador (2012, 2016) and Senegal (2015, 2017).

Project summary:

Training Course “Cry of Hope” will gather 30 young leaders, youth workers, activists from 10 programme countries, in Malaga Region, Spain to design and develop strategies for stimulating youth to promote respect to human rights and fundamental freedoms choosing as a “weapon” youth work and non-formal education. The main focus during the training will be on hate speech and the main question to be discussed – When do the freely expressed opinions become a hate speech?

Training Course will use non formal methods to realize the following object:

- Understanding what hate speech is,
- Analyzing the causes and roots of discrimination,
- Find out the role of public authorities in the tackled issues,
- Hate speech and stereotypes,
- Online hate speech and conflicts between countries,
- Discover and discuss other forms of hate speech (ex. cyberbullying etc.)
- Studying European programs and creating follow-up projects related to the topic.

As it has been already mentioned, the learning process of participants will be organized through non-formal and informal education methods. To achieve the principal goals of the training “Cry of Hope” we will use activities such as: group discussion/presentations, special-cases, intercultural evenings, team-building activities, role-plays, simulation and other creative activities initiated by the participants. The longer benefit of the project will be assured by providing participants with necessary tools and knowledge and reporting the outcomes of the training to the foreign and local/national partners.

Participant Profile: There is no limit age, participants will be over 18 y.o. It is important to maintain the gender balance.

We expect that our participants knows the background of regulation of hate speech in their countries.
