Practical Information:

Project Description:

The youth exchange project "Let's Solve Islamophobia Problem" does not only aim getting rid of prejudices against Islam, at the same time it aims getting rid of fears and negative thoughts against Islamic thoughts/life style and Muslim people's worships. Our target is bringing our participants positive point of view by showing the real beauty of Islam with the help of our activities. In order to be able to reach this target, we benefited from the activities that let each participant to feel and to be involved in the subject. To share the information about our topic, we will use the following techniques; knowing each other games, workshop, ice breaking games, presentations, sightseeing tour, visiting governor, collage and presentation, research and discussion, drama, documentaries, brain storming, play, conversation, individual work, group work, round-table meeting, workshop for marbling, parody, simulation, conversation with public, interview, conference, theatre, question-answer, watching movie, videos and so on. And as final product, we will create a magazine that includes all stages of our project.

On the other hand, we will have cultural nights in order to share our cultures to each other. By doing this, we will learn new things about our friends' cultures. Additionally, by the help of historical places and natural beauties visiting days, everybody will have lots of information about the Black Sea region.
